

INTERNAL SALES

CNW Electrical is an Australian Family owned Electrical Wholesaler. We provide Electrical goods to a wide variety of industries nationwide and are regarded as the Leading Independent. This full-time role is available in our branch located in [BRANCH NAME].

The ideal applicant for this role would be someone with a great work ethic, who can thrive and learn within an experienced team, while also sharing their own education and experience.

Your duties would include but would not be limited to:

- Counter sales, servicing domestic and industrial contractors.
- Processing & follow up of customer orders, quotes and telephone enquiries.
- Identifying opportunities to upsell or cross sell products.
- Assisting Managers with sales related inquiries.
- Working with the sales team to achieve daily branch requirements.
- Build and strengthen key customer relationships and value add to an existing customer base.
- Opportunity to participate in a Certificate III or Traineeship of a relevant qualification.

Skills required for this job would include:

- Experience in customer service and sales is essential.
- Electrical wholesale or supply chain experience is preferred but not essential.
- Ability to multi task in a fast-paced environment.
- Excellent communication (verbal and written).
- Computer literacy.
- Current Australian Drivers licence.

One of the successes of our business has been our ability to attract and retain the best staff in our industry; we do this by offering competitive salaries and a positive environment to work in. Support for further advancement in your career within CNW will be encouraged for the right applicants.

If you would like to become a member of our friendly team we will offer ongoing training and support to assist you with further career advancement within the company.

If you feel you have the necessary skills and determination to be successful in this role and wish to join a fun and fast growing organisation, please click APPLY now and take advantage of this opportunity!

We thank all applicants for their interest in this position. However, only those suitable will be contacted. All applications and conversations will be treated with the strictest confidence.